BIOGRAPHY

Shana T. Don represents private and public sector employers in commercial and civil litigation matters. She focuses her practice on contract disputes concerning Intellectual Property and Employment Law issues.

Before joining the firm, Ms. Don was a member of the Legal Staff of The World Intellectual Property Organization in Geneva, Switzerland. She managed international mediations and arbitrations concerning Intellectual Property and Domain Name disputes under ICANN's UDRP Policy. She has extensive experience in evolving Trademark and Internet law issues as well as developing alternative dispute resolution policies concerning Intellectual Property, Internet, Privacy, Consumer Protection and Free Speech laws.

Ms. Don is a graduate of La Salle University (B.A. cum laude, 2005) where she holds dual degrees in English and Communications. She received her J.D. (cum Laude, 2009) from New York Law School and is admitted to practice in New Jersey and New York. Ms. Don is a member of the New York State Bar Association, The World Intellectual Property Organization Academy and The Internet Society (ISOC).
